

Monterey Herald

Photos: Pacific Grove Summer LEGO show

Posted by Lisa Mitchell on 07/02/2016 4:05pm

The LEGO enthusiasts gathered for the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO Show inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. The event was sponsored by the Bay Area LEGO Users Group which draws members from throughout the greater Bay Area.

Photo 1: Visitors to the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO Show are awed by Marcello De Cicco's LEGO model of the USS Yorktown CV10 World War II era aircraft carrier inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. The 8 1/2 foot boat is made up of over 26,000 LEGO bricks and weighs 76 pounds. The event was sponsored by the Bay Area LEGO users group which draws members from as far away as north of San Francisco, east of Oakland and down into Monterey County. (David Royal - Monterey Herald)

Photo 2: Children and an occasional parent put together blocks in a LEGO build area during the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO show inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. (David Royal - Monterey Herald)

Photo 3: LEGO airplanes cover the flight deck on Marcello De Cicco's LEGO model of the USS Yorktown CV10 World War II era aircraft carrier during the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO Show inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. The 8 1/2 foot boat is made up of over 26,000 LEGO bricks and weighs 76 pounds. The event was sponsored by the Bay Area LEGO Users Group which draws members from as far away as north of San Francisco, east of Oakland and down into Monterey County. (David Royal - Monterey Herald)

Photo 4: Kids display things they built in the LEGO build area at the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO show inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. (David Royal - Monterey Herald)

Photo 5: LEGO Models on display during the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO show inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. (David Royal - Monterey Herald)

Photo 6: LEGO pilots gather on the flight deck of Marcello De Cicco's LEGO model of the USS Yorktown CV10 World War II era aircraft carrier during the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO Show inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. The 8 1/2 foot boat is made up of over 26,000 LEGO bricks and weighs 76 pounds. The event was sponsored by the Bay Area LEGO Users Group which draws members from as far away as north of San Francisco, east of Oakland and down into Monterey County. (David Royal - Monterey Herald)

Photo 7: A picture of a cat that was built from LEGOs on display during the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO show inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. (David Royal - Monterey Herald)

Photo 8: Twins Carson and Gracie Miller, 7, look at a picture of a cat with their father Dan during the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO show inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. (David Royal - Monterey Herald)

Photo 9: LEGO waves over a surfer and off the stern of Marcello De Cicco's (at rear of photo) LEGO model of the USS Yorktown CV10 World War II era aircraft carrier during the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO Show inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. The 8 1/2 foot boat is made up of over 26,000 LEGO bricks and weighs 76 pounds. The event was sponsored by the Bay Area LEGO Users Group which draws members from as far away as north of San Francisco, east of Oakland and down into Monterey County. (David Royal - Monterey Herald)

Photo 10: Twins Carson and Gracie Miller, 7, of Pacific Grove look over a LEGO model of a business during the Pacific Grove Summer LEGO show inside the American Tin Cannery on Saturday July 2, 2016. (David Royal - Monterey Herald)

Originally posted at:

<http://photos.montereyherald.com/2016/07/02/photos-pacific-grove-summer-lego-show/#1>

